

It is with a great deal of pleasure that we have reviewed our Boys' department stock, and we believe you will experience the same thrill when you see the immense collection of handsome boys' togs we have in store for you.

Remember everything a boy wears.

Come in and see them.

Northcott - Tate
Hagy Company

"Better Clothes"
926-928 Fourth Avenue.
HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

DOINGS OF JOHNSON COUNTY PEOPLE.

News From Paintsville and the Surrounding Country.

Death of Child.

John, the two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Daniel died recently after an illness of several days. His death had been expected for several days.

Judge Adams.

Circuit Judge James Adams, who has been holding the special term of the Johnson Circuit Court has made many friends since coming to Paintsville. His rulings have been fair and his decisions just.

Jeweler Improved.

W. J. Pendleton, the jeweler, has been confined to his home this week on account of sickness but is now able to be out again.

In West Va. Flood.

Geo. Spradlin, son of John M. Spradlin, has returned from West Virginia where he has been working for some time. He was in the flood that swept Cabin creek a few days ago.

Rev. Sowards on Vacation.

Rev. H. G. Sowards left here Friday for Charleston where he goes to spend his vacation with his family who is the guest of friends and relatives there. He will be away about three weeks, returning to Paintsville to preach Sunday before the conference. There will be no services at the Mayo Memorial ##### church for two weeks.

Buys Property.

Everett Evans has purchased the Geo. Gray property adjoining the Mayo Memorial church of Mrs. Mayo. This is one of the best homes in Paintsville. Mr. and Mrs. Evans have been living in the building for a year or more. This is an excellent family of whom our town should feel proud.

Sheriff in Town Early.

Sheriff George Spears lives ten miles from Paintsville on his farm at Riceville but he is in his office at Paintsville at six o'clock each morning, often making the trip hereback, arriving here before some of our good citizens are out of bed.

Undergoes Operation.

Miss Margie Cassady was taken to Huntington Sunday morning where she will undergo an operation for some trouble in her head. She is a sister of Mrs. Will A. Ward and has been making her home at Van Lear.

Mrs. Albert McKenzie Dies.

Stella, wife of Albert McKenzie, of Manilla, Ky., was born April 1, 1878, died August 10, 1916. She was a daughter of Edmond Burchwell, of Relief, Ky.

She was married to Albert McKenzie at about the age of 20. She became a Christian shortly after her marriage, and joined the United Baptist church at Fish Trap, and from that time lived a devoted Christian life.

She leaves a husband and two sons, Homer and Ford, aged respectively 15 and 7 years, and an infant daughter named Oba, her twin sister having died and was buried with her mother.

Married, recently, Harry Rice and Miss Chloe May, of Riceville, in the Conley hotel, the Rev. Burns Conley officiating.

Mrs. Warren Vanhoush and children of Lawrenceburg, Ky., are here the guests of relatives and friends. Professor and Mrs. Vanhoush formerly lived in this county, but moved to Lawrenceburg a few years ago, where Professor Vanhoush accepted a position in the revenue service. Professor Vanhoush was for a number of years a teacher in the public schools of our county. He is recognized at present as one of the leading educators in Eastern Kentucky.—Post.

Personals.

Mrs. K. B. Williams and little son, of Catlettsburg, are here the guests of Mrs. Williams' mother, Mrs. Link Rice and family.

Mrs. M. C. Kirk continues sick. Her friends are hoping she will soon recover.

Mrs. H. B. Rice and daughter Lucille are now at home after a few weeks stay at Jenkins at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. C. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Robinson and little sons John and Howard were visiting friends and relatives at Boone Camp and near recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Laban T. Kirk and children have returned to McRoberts after a visit in Paintsville. Their residence will be occupied by Prof. and Mrs. Pond.

The 12-year-old son of John Lyons, who has been suffering with blood poisoning for the past few weeks was taken to the Huntington hospital Sunday for treatment.

PIKE COUNTY NEWS

ASHLAND BUSINESS MAN ILL OF FEVER.

Pikeville, Ky., Aug. 18.—Physicians are giving up hope of saving the life of M. C. Thornbury, salesman for and stockholder in the Consolidated Grocery company, of Ashland, who is unconscious at his home in this city from the effects of brain fever. Thornbury has been sick only a few days. A number of relatives are attending at his bedside, also three physicians. Congestion is said to have been the result of overheating.

MRS. CALLIHAN RETURNS HOME.

Mrs. Nola Callihan, superintendent of the King's Daughters' hospital returned to her home in Ashland, having spent two weeks most delightfully with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Jackson. Mrs. Callihan will spend the remainder of the month with home folks and enter upon her duties again the first of September.

REV. ROWE'S LAST SERMON.

The Rev. Rowe preached his last sermon here Sunday. He has been pastor here for two years, and has done much good in the community. The Methodist Conference is held at Berea, Ky., about the first of next month. Rev. Rowe was liked very much by the young people, as he was a good mixer. We sincerely wish Mrs. Rowe the greatest of success at his next circuit. Rev. Rowe and Miss Ho Lyons sang two separate alto duets, one Sunday morning and one Sunday evening. They were both fine.

MR. ROGERS BUYS KEWANEE MINES.

J. R. Rogers Saturday closed a deal with O. P. Chatfield and business associates, whereby Mr. Rogers takes over the ownership of the Kewanee Coal Co., six miles east of here. Both Mr. Chatfield and Mr. Rogers are well known in Ashland.

COLD WATER FORCES SWIMMERS FROM RIVER.

A high tide in the Sandy river last Friday brought into vogue a new and very dangerous sport. A number of swimmers plunged into the rapidly rising flood tide, intending to take a three-mile swim. Making for the center of the river they passed under the highway bridge which spans the stream near the foot of Main-st., but were forced to leave the water on account of its being too cold.

OLD COUPLE WEDDED.

A wedding was solemnized between Rev. Asa Thompson of Mouth Card and Vicy Thompson of Pawpaw, at Jambores Tuesday. Rev. J. L. Dotson officiated. The groom is 84 years old and the bride is 72 years old. They returned to Pawpaw with L. D. Coleman.

MISS LEONE POLLEY VISITS FRIENDS.

Miss Leone Polley of Elkhorn City, daughter of L. D. Polley, banker, spent several days at Pikeville as the guest of Mrs. J. B. Polley, her aunt, at the new hotel Pike.

BILITER FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

Former legislative representative J. M. Biliter, has moved from his old home on Pond creek to his farm near Pikeville, and it is understood he will enter the race next year for the Republican nomination for county superintendent of schools. Biliter is a scholar and a splendid example of integrity and native brains. He has served successfully as a school teacher, as representative of his county at Frankfort, and as deputy sheriff.

I. O. O. F. ORPHANS COMING IN SEPTEMBER.

Sometime in September not yet determined upon the Odd Fellows of Pikeville and neighboring lodges will hold an annual celebration here at which about fifty children from the I. O. O. F. Orphans' Home in Lexington will attend. The Pikeville lodge had planned to hold an elaborate celebration some weeks ago, and rainy weather rendered the undertaking impossible. The one now in preparation will eclipse all former entertainments held by this lodge. The children from the Home will make up the brass bands and a boys' band and one a girl's band. These two juvenile organizations will vie with each other in the making of good music, while the fraternalists and the families expect to enjoy a picnic beneath the shade of trees.

AT ELKHORN.

Prof. J. M. Staton, who last year taught in the Pikeville schools, will have charge of the public schools at Elkhorn City this year.

VISITING AT CYNTHIANA.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Morris and child are spending a few days with friends and relatives in Cynthiana.

MISS FEARING ACCEPTS NEW POSITION.

Miss Anna Fearing, who has been stenographer in the Ashland Independent office for a number of years, has accepted a position with the Pikeville Grocery company, and went on duty Monday morning. Miss Fearing is an efficient stenographer.

Prof. John Shaw, who was in charge of the high school department here last year, has returned to his home in Henry-co, to take up his work there this year.

Ephraim Louis, Jr., Myrtle Shoupwell, 21, both of Pike-co, Ky., were granted marriage license in Catlettsburg.

Mrs. D. M. Carter and children, Marvin Edward, Frank, Jr., Harold Preston and Janette, of Pikeville, are visiting the family of her father-in-law, Dr. B. F. Carter in West Liberty.

Mr. J. D. Charles and son, D. H. Charles, of Phelps, Ky., are visiting Mrs. M. W. Lusk and Miss Nora Charles, of Williamson. Mrs. Lusk and Miss Charles are the daughters of Mr. Charles.

Mrs. C. W. Myers, of Ashland, Ky., has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. P. Gibson. Miss Stella Ferguson, her daughter, is also here.

Rev. M. C. Reynolds returned Monday from Rock Camp, Ohio, where he has been conducting a camp meeting for about three weeks. This is his ninth year in the Rock Camp meetings and he says it gets better all the time.

Miss Bertha Sarraves, of Portsmouth, O., is visiting relatives and friends here. Miss Sarraves formerly lived here; her parents operated the Heller hotel for two or three years. She completed a business course in the Paintsville Business College, a few years ago, and from there she accepted a position in Portsmouth, at which place she has been since.

Several ladies called on Mayor Jackson a few days ago and asked that his influence be used to stop dumping the city cleaning over the bank on the opposite side of the river.

Mrs. Langley stated that, besides being an eye-sore to the passers by and a good cradle for malaria, there was an excellent opportunity also for infantile paralysis to rise out of it.

K. S. Fleming, indicted for the murder of Sid Tackitt of Pike-co, last August, who had been out on $10,000 bond and who disappeared last May, has just come in to Melvin, this county, and given himself up. His motive for doing so is unknown. There was a reward of $700 offered for his capture. —Prestonsburg Post.

Mrs. Estes Thornbury and wife and Purla Thornbury were here from Jenkins enroute to Ashland for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Thornbury. Mrs. Estes Thornbury, who is a bride, is said to be a very charming young woman.

the Paintsville Business College, a few years ago, and from there she accepted a position in Portsmouth, at which place she has been since.

Several ladies called on Mayor Jackson a few days ago and asked that his influence be used to stop dumping the city cleaning over the bank on the opposite side of the river.

Mrs. Langley stated that, besides being an eye-sore to the passers by and a good cradle for malaria, there was an excellent opportunity also for infantile paralysis to rise out of it.

K. S. Fleming, indicted for the murder of Sid Tackitt of Pike-co, last August, who had been out on $10,000 bond and who disappeared last May, has just come in to Melvin, this county, and given himself up. His motive for doing so is unknown. There was a reward of $700 offered for his capture. —Prestonsburg Post.

Mrs. Estes Thornbury and wife and Purla Thornbury were here from Jenkins enroute to Ashland for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Thornbury. Mrs. Estes Thornbury, who is a bride, is said to be a very charming young woman.

Mrs. E. P. Arnold entertained to six o'clock dinner on Sunday Mrs. Lucy Caldwell, Mrs. Harold Hatcher and Mrs. Mary D. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. A. J. May, Olga May and Mable Mayo spent Sunday at the Mayo farm.

Ed Burke and Henry Patrick returned Saturday from Cincinnati.

Henry Patrick has accepted a position with the Beaver Pond Coal company.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hopkins have returned from a two weeks visit to friends and relatives at Tazewell, Va.

F. H. Cottrell has been in Baltimore purchasing the fall line of goods for the L. Richmond Co.

G. P. Archer has returned from Abington, Va., where he has been looking over the college there before entering his two daughters.

Mr. Shurtliff of Boston left Tuesday for Beaver creek.

Misses Edith Fitzpatrick and Ruth Davidson went to Auxier and Van Lear Tuesday and Wednesday.

G. H. Rice was here from Paintsville the first of the week.

Slumber Party.

Mrs. N. M. White entertained at her cozy home on Second-st. to a "Slumber party" in honor of her sister Miss Martha Ferriatt of Mt. Sterling. The invited guests were Miss Ella Noel White and attractive guests, Misses Lela Harper and Augusta Jacob of Clarksville, W. Va.

Entertains to Dinner.

Mrs. H. H. Fitzpatrick entertained to a lovely and delicious six o'clock dinner on last Thursday. The guests were Mrs. Martha Womack and daughter Ruth, of West Liberty, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson and son Andrew Spradlin, Mrs. Zula D. Spradlin, Miss Martha Pieratt of Mt. Sterling and Ruth Davidson.

Hurt by Falling Brick.

While playing around the new M. E. Church building on last Thursday little Jo Annie Allen was injured on the forehead by a falling brick. The wound was attended to by Dr. Richmond and will soon be all right.

Moving to Wayland.

Mrs. Mary D. Allen left Tuesday for Wayland where she has accepted a position with the Elkhorn Fuel company. Mrs. Allen has been running a boarding house in this city for a number of years and her many friends and relatives regret to see her leave. She will keep two children here in school, taking little Jo Annie. The NEWS as well as the people of Prestonsburg wish this good lady all the success in the world.

Badly Cut.

The little grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Patrick, was badly cut with a rusty gas pipe while playing on the lawn last week. The physician was called at once and several stitches were taken in the wound on the leg. Her condition is much improved.

Baptist Association At Pikeville.

Those who attended the Baptist Association at Pikeville this week were Rev. and Mrs. Pope, Prof. A. C. Harlowe, Mr. S. C. Ferguson, Wm. Dingus, Mrs. Maude Rose and Miss Myrtle Marra.

Locals.

Chas. Keyser, Jr., of Keyser was here the latter part of the week calling on friends.

Mrs. Lela Fitzpatrick, who was visiting Dr. R. H. Leete and family recently returned to her home at Allen last week, accompanied by her little nephew Roger Womack of West Liberty.

Bruce Atkinson is on Otter creek doing some special surveying for the Elkhorn Fuel company.

Mrs. Martha Womack and little daughters Ruth and Virginia Deere have gone to Allen to visit her mother and sister after spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hopkins.

Miss Grace Layne is visiting Miss Nellie Clarke at Harold.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lauborn left Friday for a few days to visit relatives at Catlettsburg.

John E. Layne returned Friday from fronton and other points.

Lyndon E. Brode was here the latter part of the week looking after the gas business.

James Davidson, who is teaching at Irel is spending the week end with his parents.

M. D. Powers left Friday for Jelico, Tenn., and other points in that territory in interest of "Shoe Peg" Tobacco company.

Geo. T. Roberts returned Thursday after having been water bound in the Cabin creek district in West Virginia for several days.

Miss Sallie Brannan has returned from several weeks visit to Mrs. E. A. Stumbo at Wayland.

I. L. Stone of Pikeville came down Sunday to try to find the trouble with the electric wires that have been giving trouble about lighting the town.

Mrs. Elizabeth Goble returned Sunday from a several weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Belva Quisenberry at Richmond, Va.

Misses Annie Fitzpatrick and Sue Preston spent the week-end at Buffalo the guests of friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Callihan returned Sunday from Old Point Comfort, Va., where they attended the C. and O. surgeons meeting.

Mrs. Lucy Caldwell and children and Mrs. Harold Hatcher and son of Harold have been visiting Mrs. Chas. Ferrel on Second-st.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. White, Jr., and Mrs. Martha Ferriatt were dinner guests at "the White House" on Sunday. Uncle Bill Hall of Greenup county was here Saturday calling on friends.

Henry Ford went to East Point this week to visit his sister, Mrs. Anson.

Miss Ethel Stephens, who was called home on account of the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Clarke, returned to her school at Harold on Sunday.

Lon Moles was in Huntington on Saturday and Sunday.

Clyde Burchett spent Sunday here. He resigned his position with the C. & O. at Middle creek a few weeks ago and has accepted another with the Elkhorn Fuel Co. at Wayland.

Mrs. E. P. Arnold entertained to six o'clock dinner on Sunday Mrs. Lucy Caldwell, Mrs. Harold Hatcher and Mrs. Mary D. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. A. J. May, Olga May and Mable Mayo spent Sunday at the Mayo farm.

Ed Burke and Henry Patrick returned Saturday from Cincinnati.

Henry Patrick has accepted a position with the Beaver Pond Coal company.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hopkins have returned from a two weeks visit to friends and relatives at Tazewell, Va.

F. H. Cottrell has been in Baltimore purchasing the fall line of goods for the L. Richmond Co.

G. P. Archer has returned from Abington, Va., where he has been looking over the college there before entering his two daughters.

Mr. Shurtliff of Boston left Tuesday for Beaver creek.

Misses Edith Fitzpatrick and Ruth Davidson went to Auxier and Van Lear Tuesday and Wednesday.

G. H. Rice was here from Paintsville the first of the week.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

School is progressing nicely with Miss Grace Dameron teacher.

There will be a pie social and fishing pond here Saturday night, Aug. 26 for the benefit of the school. Come everybody.

Jim Pondard of Columbus is expected to visit Pleasant Ridge people soon.

Misses Pearl and Martella Shannon were calling on Little Blaine girls Sunday.

Gypsy Blankenship of Louisa spent last week with Meale and Jean Shannon.

Mrs. Willie Berry and children have been visiting their mother, Mrs. Bell Jordan.

Aunt Alice Frazier called on Mrs. G. A. Haws Tuesday.

Miss Grace Dameron was shopping in Louisa Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Ferrell and children spent Thursday with their grandmother, Mrs. Amanda Roberts.

Choir practice here every Friday night.

Forrest Dameron and Sam Dock Headlin called at Wm. Shannon's Sunday afternoon.

Grandmother Roberts hurt her arm very badly Sunday on a nail.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Bradley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Roberts.

Mrs. George Roberts is expecting an extended visit by her mother, Mrs. Cove Jordan of Irel.

John Carlson returned home from Beaver Tuesday.

Pearl Shannon has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Vinson, at Dunithen.

Sunday school at 2:30. Everybody come and help us. The attendance is small, but interest is good.

Mrs. Duran Keel and little daughter, Grace, of Pikeville, are visiting her brother, Mr. John Dameron.

TAB AND TAB.

MEADS BRANCH.

The Rev. A. H. Miller has been confined to his bed for several days with a bad case of blood poisoning. For a few days it looked like his recovery was doubtful, but by the closest attention of his physician, Dr. J. O. Moore, he is fast on the road to recovery.

Charley and Levi Miller are at home from Ohio to see their sick father.

Sylvester Chapman and family have returned from Ohio where they had been for nearly a year.

Payton Blackburn and wife were visiting A. H. Miller Sunday.

Aunt Betty Castle, who has been sick for so long, is some better.

Several from this place attended the Baptist foot washing at the Pack church on Little Blaine Sunday.

Our school is progressing fine with Levi Streitenburg as teacher.

We are having quite a lot of rain, with some wind storms.

Charley Miller was visiting Charley Hinkle one day last week.

A quiet little wedding took place on

Shannon branch last Saturday, contracting parties being J. H. Tread and Mr. Tom Sloan who were married by the Rev. Jesse Simpson.

A. A. Kise is here from a visit to his mother and brother, Melvin Kise who moved to the branch in Jackson county.

Jettie Childers, after a long stay in her home, has returned to her friends here, but is still in the hospital at W. Va.

Quite a lot of our boys are working for Mr. W. Triple in his timber lot for the Garrel Branch. He is doing a lumbering business. ONLY ONE.

BLAINE, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Moore are here visiting their daughter, Mrs. C. V. Berry.

Mrs. F. D. Dameron had for her guests Wednesday night Misses Ruth Hickbrook, Blanche Osborn, Ella Jay Hewlett and Julia Keweenaw.

Herbert Moore and wife of Winchester are here visiting his sister, Mrs. Chas. Berry.

Clarence and Lawrence Hinkley are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. H. C. Osborn and family and C. H. Kise and family motored to Louisa Saturday and spent the day.

Ed Walter is spending a few days with home folks.

Rev. J. H. Stambaugh and wife are here visiting relatives.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and three children of Louisa are here visiting her brother, G. W. Keane.

S. D. Wellman, who has typhoid fever is getting along slowly we are glad to say.

Mrs. Pharnes Chandler is very low with typhoid. We have only two cases of typhoid in our little town.

Mr. Troy Wheeler and family are visiting relatives here.

The meeting at the Christian church conducted by Rev. Wall closed Sunday night.

Chili and Charles Hinkley were in Blaine over Sunday.

Mrs. Owen Gambell is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roscoe Wellman.

Mr. Mart Moore and wife are visiting their son Lom Moore in Ohio this week. SMOOKY OOKIES.

SMOKY VALLEY.

The annual camp meeting has begun at the Bethel Camp Ground with good music and large attendance.

Mrs. Grant Roberts is very ill at the home of J. N. Roberts.

Irene Pickard attended the festival at Mt. Pleasant Saturday night.

Blaine Cyrus is the guest of Dorothy and Ethel Cyrus.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dameron have at their guest the latter's mother.